

Regulations of the Competition “Discover your potential!” as part of Integration Day II (ed. 2024)

1. Organizer

The "Discover Your Potential!" competition is organized as part of the Integration Day II event at UEW (2024 edition), conducted by the International Cooperation Center of Wrocław University of Economics and Business. The Career Services Office (Business Cooperation Center (BCC)) is responsible for the activities related to the "Discover Your Potential!" competition.

2. Competition Date

The competition is scheduled to take place on the event day – Integration Day II – 21.11.2024.

3. Participation

- Participation in the competition is open to all members of the UEW community: students, Erasmus+ program participants, and employees of the Wrocław University of Economics (international and English-speaking participants). Separate prizes will be available for Polish-speaking participants through a different draw with prizes in Polish.

4. Competition Rules

Participants can enter the competition at the Career Services Office (Business Cooperation Center (BCC)) booth on the event day.

Competition questions will be available at the designated area of the Career Services Office booth – where each participant will draw a single question.

- If the answer to the question is correct – the participant will fill out a ticket with their details and place it in a container from which prize draws will be made.
- If the answer to the question is incorrect – the participant will not be allowed to place their ticket in the draw.

Participants can enter the competition only once, and only after providing a correct answer to a question are they eligible to fill out a ticket (with their details) and place it in the prize draw pool. By providing their data, participants consent to its processing. The GDPR information clause will be available at the Career Services Office booth.

The prize draw (access to the survey – details in section 5 Prizes) will take place at the end of the day – among all participants who completed the tickets from the beginning of the event after correctly answering a competition question (at the Career Services Office booth). The draw will be documented with an appropriate protocol.

5. Prizes

- Participants have the chance to win participation in the INTL76 questionnaire – Profiling of Professional Personality, along with a summary report.
- The INTL76 questionnaire – Profiling of Professional Personality – is used to profile professional personality. It is a standardized tool that assesses the alignment of a person's potential with the requirements of a position and employer expectations. It can be used in both recruitment processes and for career development and career management.
- At the end of the day, the following will be drawn:
 - 5 accesses to the INTL76 questionnaire – Profiling of Professional Personality, along with a summary report – describing the assessment results provided by Career Services Office advisors/certified consultants (in English).

The Career Services Office will contact the selected participants individually to arrange the specific survey date.

6. Additional Information

Additional information about the survey is available via email at biurokarier@ue.wroc.pl.

We invite everyone to participate in the competition and wish you good luck!
