Wroclaw University of
Economics and Business
Rector
Prof. dr hab. Czesław Zając

Dear Rector Magnificus,

It was with deep sadness that we learned of the death of Prof. dr hab. Andrzej Gospodarowicz, an outstanding economist and analyst who was able to discern global trends behind sporadic events in the banking sector. He undoubtedly was a scientist looking to the future.

Saint Petersburg State University of Economics (UNECON) enjoyed the long-term beneficial cooperation with this outstanding person. Joint scientific conferences, seminars and publications made fundamental contribution to the development of economic science in our countries.

Prof. dr hab. Gospodarowicz was always eager to help in research, ready to support and give wise advice, open to cooperation.

A wise, intellectual person, a good comrade and friend, he will remain in our memories and hearts.

On behalf of the community of students and teaching staff of UNECON, we ask you to convey our most sincere and deep condolences to the family of Prof. dr hab. Gospodarowicz.

Sincerely yours,

Vice-rector

Dmitry Vasilenko
